In Religious Celebrations Were the Falls Cities During Present Week.

Rosary Sunday Fittingly Commemorated at St. Louis Bertrand's.

People of St. Peter's Thronged That Edifice During Golden Jubilee Festivities.

HISTORIC CHURCH OF OUR LADY

The present week was prolific in religious celebrations around the Falls Cities. This ground, made sacred by the labors of the saintly Bishop Flaget, is still productive of God-fearing Catholics. In those days of nearly a century ago Kentucky was the cradle of Western Catholicity. Now, that Catholicity has spread over the entire West, many dioceses look back to the old diocese of Louisville as the fount from which their waters sprang.

The first Sunday in October is celebrated all over the world as Rosary Sunday, in commemoration of the victory of the Christian over the Turkish fleet in the Gulf of Lepanto in the sixteenth century. The fate of all Christendom depended on the result of this great naval battle. If the Turks won it meant death to Christianity. The Christian fleet was much inferior to the Turkish fleet in point of numbers. But the God of Victory and Our Blessed Lady were with the Christians. While the battle raged hundreds of miles away the people of Rome marched through the streets reciting the rosary, and Pope Pius V., now canonized, prayed for the victory of the Christian hosts. By some miraculous means he was given to see the Christians victorious and the Turks put to rout. Pope Pius suddenly raised his eyes to heaven and exclaimed: "Let us give thanks to God, for our fleets have fought thin Turks and in this very hour have conquered." Then he knelt down and with all present gave thanks to God for the victory obtained through the aid of the Blessed Virgin. On this occasion "Help of Christians" was added to the litany of the Blessed Virgin, and Pope Pius V. ordered that in memory of the victory each recurring first Sunday in October should be celebrated as the feast of the most holy rosary. Since then the celebration of the feast has been observed, and each succeeding Pope has endowed the feast with additional indulgences, and now the whole of October is known as the month of the rosary.

In Louisville the most elaborate celebration of the feast of Rosary Sunday was held at St. Louis Bertrand's church. The Franciscan fathers, on the invitation of the Dominicans, officiated at the solemn high mass at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. Father James A. Heenan, O. P., preached the sermon. At 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon the Dominican fathers sang vespers, which was followed by the rosary procession. More than 200 children clad in white took part, the boys carrying the fifteen banners displaying the fifteen mysteries of the rosary. The rosary sermon was preached by the Very Rev. Father J. R. Volz, O. P., prior of St. Louis Bertrand's convent. Father Volz is an able and learned orator and his sermon was listened to with attention by the large congregation present. Benediction of the most blessed sacrament closed the celebration for the day. During October the rosary will be recited in St. Louis Bertrand's church at 7:30 o'clock each evening.

On Sunday also began the four days' celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of St. Peter's congregation. Great crowds filled the church both morning and afternoon of each day. While the priests of the order of Minor Augustinians are in charge of St. Peter's, the secular priests and the priests of every order in the city assisted in the solemnities of the golden jubilee. The Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey occupies a throne in the sanctuary on Sunday. The Catholics of Jeffersonville were in great glee Sunday over the dedication of the new St. Augustine's church. Catholics from Louisville and New Albany joined with their Jeffersonville brethren in swelling the crowd which witnessed the dedicatory ceremonies. The Right Rev. Denis O'Donoghue, Auxiliary Bishop of Indianapolis, dedicated the handsome new church at 10:30 o'clock, and also preached the sermon. Solemn high mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Walter Cronin, of Clinton, Ind., who was formerly assistant pastor of St. Augustine's. Bishop O'Donoghue was assisted by the Very Rev. Father James P. Cronin, V. G., of Louisville, and Rev. Father J. W. Doyle, of Washington, Ind., as deacons of honor. In the celebration of the solemn high mass Father Cronin was assisted by Father Curran as deacon and Father Kaiser as sub-deacon, while the Rev. Father O'Connell was master of ceremonies.

During the afternoon several hundred people from the three Falls Cities inspected the new edifice, and at 7:30 o'clock in the evening solemn vespers were sung, after which there was a lecture and benediction of the most blessed sacrament. The church was brilliantly illuminated by hundreds of electric lights.

On Wednesday the people of the Church of Our Lady in Portland celebrated the sixty-fourth anniversary of the dedication of their church. The Right Rev. Bishop Flaget officiated at the dedication, and was assisted by Coadjutor Bishop Chabrat and Father Badin, and Father McGill, afterward Bishop of Richmond, preached the sermon. The Church of Our Lady was built by Father Perche, who was its first pastor and afterward became Archbishop of New Orleans. Rev. James J. Conniff is now the zealous pastor of this old church.

HEALTHY BALANCE

On Books of Jeffersonville Division of Hibernians.

President Robert Gleason presided over a splendid meeting of the Jeffersonville division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians Tuesday night. Among the many old familiar faces present were those of Martin Fogarty, Redmond Stanton and John Kennedy. All bills were allowed and ordered paid, and Edward Coy was reported better. The Auditing Committee reported that the books balanced and that, despite the heavy drain on account of sick and death benefits, the Treasurer's books showed a handsome increase in funds in both the second and third quarters.

The members expressed a desire for an initiation and an exemplification of the degrees under the new ritual. Lawrence Ford, on behalf of the Picnic Committee, reported that the picnic had been a financial as well as a social success. The Jeffersonville division now has 120 members in good standing.

INITIATED.

Four Candidates Join the Hibernians Via Division 3.

Division 3, A. O. H., held a splendid meeting Monday night, with Vice President P. J. Welsh in the chair. The fact that a class was to be initiated was partially responsible for the large attendance. After the dispatch of some ordinary routine business the following candidates for initiation were presented: John Martin, John Keaveney, John T. Lyon and James Ryan. Patrick T. Sullivan as the parrain made a fine impression, as did D. J. Coleman, George J. Butler and P. J. Welsh, the other members of the degree team.

James Beaman was reported ill. The Literary Committee reported progress on the arrangements for the approaching celebration of Division 3's twenty-first anniversary. The receipts Monday evening amounted to $145.

SCHUMMANN—LURDORFF.

The announcement that Leo C. Schumann, Secretary of the Anzeiger Company and one of Louisville's most popular newspaper men, had become a benedict, created a pleasant surprise among his many friends in this city. The bride is Miss Agnes Lurdorff, of Indianapolis, and the wedding took place at the parsonage of St. John's church in that city on Wednesday morning. The Rev. Father George Schumann, brother of the groom, assisted by the Rev. Father F. H. Gaviak, performed the ceremony. Miss Clara Pfingst, of Louisville, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Joseph Franz, of Louisville, was best man. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mrs. Agnes Lurdorff, of Indianapolis. She has visited Louisville several times and won many admirers by her womanly graces.

UNION MEETING.

The Joint Committee of the Y. M. I. met at Satolli's new quarters, northwest corner Sixth and Breckinridge streets, last Saturday night, and transacted considerable routine business. It was also decided to hold a meeting of the three councils at Trinity Council's hall, 718 East Gray street, on the night of Monday, October 23. Two members from each council will address the meeting, which will partake of the nature of a smoker. The Joint Committee desires all the members of each council to be present on that occasion.

COMPETENT

Deputies Help to Maintain Good Officials in Power and Prestige.

Personal Following of Subordinates Great Aid to Aspirants For Office.

City and County Officials Who Have Picked Men as Assistants.

JUST A FEW OF THE VERY MANY

Candidates for public office, particularly those candidates who have been elected, carry a great deal of weight, but very often it is the men behind the guns who do the work, and when a man has held an office for years and has a competent force of deputies under him it is safe to say that the deputies are entitled to some of the credit. This is true of candidates everywhere, but nowhere more than in Louisville and at no time more so than the present.

Take, for instance, John R. Pfanz, the County Jailor, who is candidate for reelection. No one stands higher than he in the city, and yet his deputies, and he has many of them, add very materially to his support. Mr. Pfanz became an active factor in politics about twenty years ago, when he was elected to the lower board of the General Council. He served five consecutive terms from the Twelfth ward, and then went to the Board of Aldermen for half a term. While in the upper board he was nominated for President against Charles F. Grainger, now Mayor. As a result there was a deadlock of twenty days. In 1894 Mr. Pfanz was the Democratic nominee for Sheriff of Jefferson county. He was elected by a handsome majority, and in 1897 was elected Jailor of Jefferson county. He was re-elected in 1901 and now seeks reelection.

Whatever Mr. Pfanz has done to make himself popular, his deputies have certainly contributed their respective shares. Some of them are turnkeys at the jail, while others are engaged at the Court House, of which Mr. Pfanz is ex-officio custodian.

Eugene Blanford, Jake Altes, Louis Buyer, Charles McCarthy, Joseph Schupp, Thomas McDonogh, Henry Garr, Patrick J. Beaman, J. W. Waller, Joseph Bauer, Burrell Blankenbaker, James Guthrie and William McNeil have all proved faithful deputies at the county jail, while John Kemper, Pat Moran, Walter Hatzell, Wallace Wood, Joe Probst, Louis Bender, John Rees, Edward Lutz, Jacob Dillman, Edward Hines, James Morris, Peter Schuck, John Tate, Thomas Pomponio, Pat Fitzgerald, Tom Gilchrist, William McGibbens, John Humphrey, John McKenna, W. H. Catlett, Harry Lapaille and John Messner are assigned to various duties around the Court House.

Thomas A. Shelley, the Democratic nominee for City Tax Receiver, is a gentleman fitted by long experience for that office. Mr. Shelley, although still a young man, went into the Tax Receiver's office under his brother, the late James Shelley, more than fifteen years ago, and when his brother died Thomas was appointed by the late Henry S. Tyler, then Mayor of Louisville, to fill the unexpired term. Then came the revolution that brought the ill-starred Republican regime with the odious Big Seven, and H. H. McCulloch was elected Tax Receiver. In 1897 the Democrats returned to office, with James B. Camp as Tax Receiver, and Mr. Shelley was one of his first appointments. In 1901, when James B. Brown became Tax Receiver, Mr. Shelley was reappointed and has remained in the office since. He understands every detail of the office and will make an admirable city official. With him will be his present fellow-deputies, Messrs. William H. McKinley, John P. Duffy, John J. Schuster, English W. Hoke and E. J. Mann. By kind and courteous treatment each of these gentlemen has endeared himself to the public. This personal following will add great strength to the Democratic ticket.

William J. Semonin, who seeks reelection as County Clerk, is another candidate whose popularity is greatly enhanced by the magnetism and good-fellowship shown by his deputies. Although Mr. Semonin had been an important factor in politics for years, it was only about eight years ago that he asked for an office. He was elected County Assessor, a position which he filled with credit to himself and satisfaction to his friends. Four years ago he was elected County Clerk and since his election he has made an excellent official and has been supported by an able and loyal force of deputies. Mr. Semonin now seeks reelection as County Clerk and will carry the same force into office with him. They are Capt. John Cowles, chief deputy; Walter Ratcliffe, one of the oldest and most faithful employees in the Court House; Robert A. Lee, Charles B. Doll, Will E. Durbeck, Paul Semonin, J. W. Ward, Theo. Weber, William B. Slattery, R. B. Yeager, Louis Watson, Joseph Schene, George Schenk, Aaron H. Forst, Phil German, Louis Wagon and J. A. Westfall. Another young man who was one of Mr. Semonin's deputies, but who resigned to enter the office of the Louisville Varnish Company, is Charles F. Taylor, Jr. Each of these deputies has his own personal friends, who will see that he is not forgotten on election day.

Alf V. Oldham, candidate for reelection as Clerk of the Police Court, is another city official with a clean record. Mr. Oldham has served two terms in that capacity and has made such an efficient officer that he has been complimented by every Police Judge as the most competent clerk the Police Court ever had. He is attentive and obliging as well as careful and considerate. In all matters pertaining to the duties of his office Mr. Oldham has been ably assisted by his deputies, Jack Shelley and James B. Kelly. Like their superior, Messrs. Shelley and Kelly are polite and accommodating and each has a strong personal following.

INSTRUCTIVE

And Amusing Affair at the Catholic Woman's Club.

An entertainment of an interesting and instructive character has been arranged by members of the Catholic Woman's Club and will take place in their hall next Monday night. The leading feature of the evening will be a lecture by the Hon. Edward J. McDermott. His subject will be "Opportunity." Those who have heard Mr. McDermott need not be told that he will handle his subject in an eloquent and scholarly manner. Miss Katie Costigan will render a soprano solo and James P. Roche will give one of his popular bass selections. Miss Catherine Fitzgerald, the talented daughter of Attorney James J. Fitzgerald, will recite several selections. Misses Marie Costigan and Jodie McGill will be the accompanists. The evening's entertainment will be free to the public and the excellence of the offerings should guarantee a full house.

WELL PLANNED.

Members of Ladies' Auxiliary Arrange For Social Sessions.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H., had a well attended meeting Wednesday night and many routine matters were disposed of. The members were paired to learn that Misses Lizzie King and Mamie Sullivan were on the sick list.

It was decided to give a euchar and social session at the last meeting of each month. According to this programme the first of these entertainments will be held in Hibernian Hall, in the Hopkins' Theater building, on the evening of Wednesday, October 18. Beautiful prizes have been secured for the successful contestants. Misses Ella O'Connell, Elizabeth King, Fannie Kennedy, Carrie Rodgers and Mamie Sullivan were appointed a committee to perfect arrangements for the first euchar and social session. These ladies, through the Kentucky Irish American, invite every member of the Ancient Order to encourage the Ladies' Auxiliary by their presence.

It is also the intention of the Ladies' Auxiliary to give a euchar and dance at some large central hall between now and Thanksgiving day.

LAST DAY.

Fall Racing at the New Louisville Jockey Club Park Closes.

Today is the last day of the fall racing season at the New Louisville Jockey Club grounds. The meeting has been a success in every way and reflects credit on President Grainger, General Manager Winn, Secretary Davis and other officials. The excellent sport afforded and the splendid weather attracted large crowds daily.

The South Louisville Handicap, over a distance of one mile, for a purse of $650, for three-year-olds and upward, will be the feature of today's card. The attendance promises to be very large.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mary Louise, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Highland, 631 East Madison street, was called to heaven Thursday morning, after an illness of several weeks. The little one suffered from whooping cough, which later developed into pneumonia. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of many friends in their grief.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gildehaus, a well known lady of the East End, died at her home, 635 East Green street, on Monday morning. The funeral took place from St. Boniface's church at 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

Miss Lizzie Ferber died at the residence of her brother-in-law, William Glover, 1819 First street, on Sunday afternoon. The funeral took place from St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

POSTPONED.

The euchar which was to have been given by a number of well known Catholic ladies at the residence of Mrs. William J. Pittman, 325 East Washington street, on Wednesday next, has been postponed until the following Wednesday, October 18, and the place has been changed to Trinity Hall, 718 East Gray street.

BOOMING

Are Things in Local Councils of the Y. M. I. Since Grand Council.

Large Class Initiated by Mackin's Degree Team Last Sunday.

Ground Broken for Trinity Club House and Members All at Work.

SATOLLI INVITES TO HOUSE-WARMING

Added impetus seems to have been given the three local councils of the Young Men's Institute by the excellent results attained by the Grand Council which met at Newport recently. Mackin, Trinity and Satolli seem to have taken new life and at each successive meeting some new ideas are advanced for the good of the order. The members seem to have imbibed the true spirit of the organization. For them the motto "For God and Country" is no idle boast. They seem to realize that they must be good Catholics and hence good citizens.

At Mackin Council's club house last Sunday afternoon was witnessed an imposing and interesting ceremonial, the initiation of a class of forty-eight candidates under the latest ritual of the order. This ritual was adopted by the Supreme Council at its last convention, held in Colorado Springs. It required several years of labor and a great deal of thought of the leading spirits of the order before it was presented for adoption. Large delegations from New Albany and from the other local councils were at Mackin's meeting Sunday to witness the first exemplification of the new ritual south of the Ohio river.

As has been stated, forty-eight candidates presented themselves for enrollment under the Y. M. I. banner, and though there was in the beginning a short delay, owing to the new paraphernalia and lack of familiarity of the degree team with it, the delay only served to whet the desire of those present to see the work. Council Deputy George J. Lutz presided over the initiatory ceremonies. The first degree was a revelation of beauty and was admirably handled by Messrs. Keiffer, Stewart, Dr. Casper, Lutz and Mullarky. Their work individually and collectively reflected great credit upon the council and intensified the desire of visiting members to see the succeeding degrees.

The second degree was by no means a disappointment, and Messrs. Sands, Carr and Boland, of the degree team, acquitted themselves admirably. The third degree and climax of the work was all that could be desired and the work was equally as meritorious as that of the preceding degrees. Messrs. O'Toole, Raidy, Farrell, Nichol and Daly were the exponents in the third, and each man sustained the part allotted to him. Judge Farrell was warmly commended for his work and proved as satisfactory to all present as an actor as he had previously proven a Judge. The new members were greatly impressed with the initiatory ceremonies, and all will doubtless prove faithful to the order.

Mackin Council held its regular meeting Monday night. More than 100 members were present, which made it one of the largest meetings of the year. Four applications were received and events showed that the membership contest, in which the whole council is lined up on one side or the other, is warming up. The greater part of the evening was taken up with routine matters and affairs of a private nature.

In the absence of President Cooney, Joseph Bell presided Monday night over the largest and most harmonious meeting of Trinity Council held this year. Albert F. Martin reported that the lot on Baxter avenue upon which the new building is to be erected had been surveyed and that ground would be broken the following day. This announcement met with hearty and prolonged applause. Seven applications for membership were received.

A resolution raising the initiation fee to $10 on and after January 1 was introduced, but under the rule will lie over till next meeting before action is taken upon it. The same resolution provides that beneficiary life members be admitted for $60 and associate members for $40. The members of the base ball team invited the council to attend their second dance, to be given next Tuesday evening.

Before adjourning the council donated the use of its club house to the Rev. Father Kalaher, pastor of the new mission at Harrod's Creek, for a euchar to be held on Wednesday, October 18.

Next Monday night, October 9, Satolli Council, with the usual feelings of fraternity and good-fellowship which always distinguishes that body, will hold an open meeting and smoker as a house warmer. Satolli's new headquarters, at Sixth and Breckinridge streets, have portieres instead of doors, so that its friends will not even have the trouble of pulling the latch string. Mackin and Trinity Councils of Louisville and Unity Council of New Albany have been cordially invited to attend Satolli's house warming. The speakers of the evening will be Mr.

Lenihan, Harry Colgan and last, but by no means least, President John J. Crotty.

SARTO COUNCIL

Visited by First Grand Vice President Martin and Others.

First Grand Vice President Albert F. Martin, Richard Hill and Alex Veeneman, of Trinity Council, Y. M. I., visited Owensboro Wednesday evening, where they were the guests of Sarto Council. The meeting was unusually well attended and the Louisville visitors were given a cordial welcome. Fred W. Arnold and a committee from Sarto met the visitors at the depot and escorted them to the club house. After the routine business had been disposed of Mr. Martin was invited to address the members.

After expressing his appreciation of the invitation to address them, Mr. Martin thanked Messrs. Arnold and Clark for courtesies extended during the sessions of the last Grand Council. He assured the members that the representatives sent by Sarto Council to the Grand Council were able and effective. He also said it was the duty of Grand officers to visit as many as possible of the subordinate councils. Mr. Martin extolled the virtues of the order and told what its members were doing all over the United States. Good example is set for the members by the Spiritual Directors and the members in turn set the example for those who are not members of the organization. Good members of the Y. M. I., he said, made the best citizens of the country. He urged Sarto Council to equip itself with a home like Mackin has done and Trinity is doing. Good books, billiard rooms and gymnasiums, he said, were inducements to members to take an interest in the council. Mr. Martin also urged that the members make the council headquarters attractive to their wives, sisters and sweethearts. In conclusion, Mr. Martin urged them to invite the Grand Directors to hold the next Grand Council in Owensboro.

After the applause had died away the Rev. Father George Connor, Chaplain of Sarto Council, was introduced by Chairman Arnold. Father Connor said he heartily approved the sentiments expressed by Mr. Martin, and thought that great good would result from visits of Grand officers to the subordinate councils. Messrs. Hill, Veeneman and Gore also made brief addresses. Among those present were several members from Montgomery Council, Knottsville. After the meeting the visitors were invited to an elegant spread. Messrs. Martin, Veeneman and Hill are loud in their praises of Sarto Council's hospitality.

CONVALESCENT.

The Right Rev. Bishop Spalding Spent Two Days Here.

The Right Rev. John Lancaster Spalding, Bishop of Peoria, spent two days in Louisville this week and left yesterday for Indianapolis, where he will remain for a short time as the guest of Bishop Chatard. Bishop Spalding is now recovering rapidly from the stroke of paralysis he suffered last spring. Six weeks ago he was brought to the home of his relatives at Lebanon. From that time on his recovery was marked. While in Louisville the distinguished prelate was at St. Joseph's Infirmary. In company with his relative, Dr. W. H. Wathen, Bishop Spalding drove over the city Wednesday and expressed surprise and delight at the city's growth. Bishop Spalding hopes to be able to resume his literary labors soon.

GOOD WILL CLUB.

The Good Will Social Club, an organization of popular young people, gave its first regular euchar on Friday night last at the home of Miss Tillie Cuniff, 2125 Griffiths avenue. Miss Mayne Sarley and Mr. Joseph Kelroe won the first prizes. Consolation prizes were awarded Miss Tillie Cuniff and Mr. Herman Hayes. Musical and vocal solos were rendered by Misses Evelyn Moeller and Catherine Fallahay, and Messrs. Tom Nolan, Parnell Barrett and Jessie Driscoll. After refreshments the party danced until a late hour. The following were present: Misses Evelyn Moeller, Lorain Flannery, Mayne Sarley, Catherine Fallahay, Nellie Earley, Nettie Gleason, Tillie Cuniff, and Messrs. Parnell Barrett, Daniel Enoch, Thomas Nolan, Jerome Driscoll, Joseph Kelroe, Herman Hayes, John Riley and Cornelius McBaron. The next euchar will be held at the home of Misses Mayne and Nellie Earley, 2223 Griffiths avenue, October 11.

THE RIGHT SMITH.

Albert S. Smith, the Democratic nominee for Councilman from the Ninth ward, is the well known undertaker, and not the secretary of a millinery company, as has been erroneously stated by the daily papers. Al Smith has made a capable and conscientious official and his constituents desire his re-election.

RECEIVED WHITE VEIL.

Miss Anna May Goebel, of 704 East Walnut street, received the white veil and habit of the Sisters of Loretto at the Convent of Loretto last Sunday. She will be known in religion as Sister Mary Felician. She is a sister of Robert G. Goebel, a prominent member of the

LANDING

Of Christopher Columbus on American Shores to be Commemorated

Louisville Knights of Columbus to Celebrate With Banquet.

Distinguished Church and Laymen Have Been Invited to Participate.

BRILLIANT SOCIAL EVENT PROMISED

Louisville Council, Knights of Columbus, are making elaborate preparations to fittingly celebrate the anniversary of the landing in this country of Christopher Columbus. This event will be commemorated by a banquet at the Louisville Hotel on the evening of Thursday, October 12.

At the time this article was written the Invitation Committee had not received responses from all to whom communications were addressed, therefore it is impossible to give the programme. Papal Ablegate Diomed Falcioni, Archbishop Moeller, of Cincinnati, and the Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey, of Louisville, are among the church dignitaries invited to attend. The only laymen not members of the Knights of Columbus invited to attend the banquet are Gov. J. C. W. Beckham and Mayor Charles F. Grainger. The celebration promises to eclipse any social affair ever given by Catholics in Kentucky.

Landing day has become a national event with the Knights of Columbus, and in many cities the celebration is of a religious nature, masses are celebrated and the Knights attend in a body. Later in the day public speakings are held and the Knights in various ways demonstrate their patriotism as well as their Catholicity.

The arrangements for the local celebration this year were put into the hands of the following committee: Edward J. O'Brien, Dr. Charles C. Lucas, Daniel F. Murphy, J. L. Riehm and Joseph A. Clements. Not only will the 400 local Knights attend the banquet, but invitations have been sent to many distinguished Knights in other cities and States.

Other committees which will lend their aid in making the Landing day celebration a success are:

Invitation Committee—J. J. Fitzgerald, Chairman; Henry Thieman, Frank A. Geher, Spalding Coleman, M. J. Winn. Reception Committee—Judge Matthew O'Doherty, Chairman; John Doyle, J. J. Caffery, Frank A. Menne, Charles J. Taylor.

Toast Committee—E. J. McDermott, Chairman; Walter P. Lincoln, Samuel J. Boldrick, Thomas Walsh, Dr. Irvin Abell. Under the direction of Lecturer P. H. Callahan the members of Louisville Council will soon enjoy a series of lectures or treatises on current topics by local members of the order. The Knights of Columbus meet at Elks' Hall on Wednesday night of each week, and at each meeting at least one member entertains with an interesting theme.

The Louisville Council continues to receive applications for membership, and the next event of importance after the banquet will be the initiation and conferring of degrees, which it is expected will take place some time during the month of December.

SMOKE TALK

To Be Given Under Auspices of Branch 25 of Catholic Knights of America.

Branch 25, Catholic Knights of America, held a large and enthusiastic meeting in its hall at Clay and Walnut streets on Monday night. It was decided to give a smoker and social meeting on the first Monday in November, at which time addresses will be delivered by members of Branch 25 and invitations will be sent to many of the prominent men throughout the city who belong to other branches. It is intended that every member of Branch 25 be present on that occasion. The purpose of this smoker and social session is to interest young as well as old in the new ritual of the order and in the uniform rank that is being organized.

William T. Meehan's address on how to build up the order and his advice to the older men not to depreciate the value of the order, but to praise what it had done, was listened to with close attention and elicited much applause. Other gentlemen who had encouraging words for the members of Branch 25 were Messrs. Mann, Martin and Phell. Messrs. William T. Meehan and Albert F. Martin were appointed to attend the next meeting of the Central Committee and submit the plans of Branch 25 devised to increase the membership.

SEND IN THE NEWS.

The Kentucky Irish American requests its readers to send in news of weddings, social events, religious celebrations and other matters of a newsy nature. It should be borne in mind, however, that persons sending in such news should not neglect to sign his or her name so that the editor may know the information is authentic. No payment will be paid to anonymous contributors. If you have any real news you have nothing to be ashamed of; if your article is thrown into the waste basket for lack of signature the editor has nothing to be ashamed of. If you can not write telephone.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

If the old adage that figures do not lie is correct, the Democratic ticket will be elected by an overwhelming majority in November. The total registration reported for Tuesday and Wednesday was 48,371, an increase of 2,763 over last year. Of these 12,400 gave their affiliation as Republicans, 8,179 declined to state their affiliation, and 27,783 declared they were Democrats. In other words, the number of Democrats exceeds the Republicans and those whose affiliation is not stated by 7,195. Some people may insist that all who announced themselves as Democrats will not vote the ticket. True enough, but their votes will be more than offset by the Republicans who will not vote the Fusion ticket. It is easy to see that Paul C. Barth will be elected by not less than 8,000 majority.

GRATIFYING.

The attendance this year in Catholic schools, both parochial and private, is very gratifying. It shows that the people of this diocese are obedient to their ecclesiastical superiors and are striving to give their children a sound Christian education. It means these children will later become good men and women, a credit to Church and State. When the seeds of faith are implanted in the young they usually bear good fruit. Sometimes men and even women fall away from religion; but in the end the old faith returns and they make their peace with God. It is the Catholic schools that have given to the world the greatest statesmen, the greatest saints, artists, scientists, professional men, and when the occasion offered the greatest soldiers. Shakespeare tells us "thrice is he armed who hath his quarrel just," and the product of the Catholic schools usually selects the just quarrel before he enters the combat.

Y. M. I. ADVANTAGES.

Just now the Young Men's Institute in Kentucky seems to be enjoying prosperity, both numerically and financially. This is due in a great measure not only to the great officers, but to the officers of the various councils. They are explaining to the Catholic youths of this and other cities the advantages of membership in the order. What are these advantages? They are social, educational and religious. Young men are bound to seek pleasure. They like to meet others of their kind. They also enjoy dancing, billiards, athletics and kindred amusements. Now these pleasures are legitimate and the Young Men's Institute supplies them. If a young man wants to enjoy any of these pleasures he will find them by hook or crook. How much better it is, then, for them to gather with Catholic young men than to wander off amid non-Catholic influences. The Y. M. I. is instructive because it teaches its members how to express themselves on the floor and makes them good speakers and clear thinkers. But it is from a religious standpoint that the Y. M. I. deserves the most credit. It holds its membership together in the cause of religion and no one can remain a member of the order who is not a practical

Catholic. Example preaches louder than precept, and many a young man would gradually fall away from his church and neglect his religious duties were it not for the fact that his friends in the order lead him by their example to be true to the principles of his holy religion. As a good Catholic he becomes a good citizen. After all, that is the aim of the Young Men's Institute—to teach its members a love of God and country.

NOTABLE CHANGE.

At a recent meeting of the Ministerial Conference of Boston, Mass., an organization similar to the Louisville Ministerial Association, several ministers eulogized Patrick Collins, the dead Mayor; resolutions of sympathy for the bereaved family were adopted, and the conference adjourned for one week out of respect to his memory. And this was in Boston, the home of the Puritans. Verily a change has come over the New England States. Forty years ago the people of Boston protested because an Irishman and a Catholic was appointed on the police force. Since then the Irish and the Catholics have shown by their conduct and example that they are to be trusted. They have made good citizens and faithful officials. Let us hope that our people in Louisville will emulate the example of their New England brethren.

BEFORE DAWN

The Chicago Night Workers Will Hear Mass on Sunday.

For the first time in the history of the Catholic church in the West regular Sunday services were held and mass celebrated before dawn for the night workers last Sunday. Permission was granted to the Very Rev. P. O'Callaghan, C. S. P., Superior of the Paulist Fathers in Chicago, by Archbishop Quigley, who received permission from Rome to hold this special service for night workers every Sunday in the year in St. Mary's church, Wabash avenue and Eldredge place, at 3 a.m., or earlier if the time is found unsuitable to the majority of night workers.

Chicago is now the second city in the world that enjoys the privilege of Sunday services for night workers, New York being the first city to receive permission through the Paulist Fathers, who conduct night services there for newspaper workers. The permission must be procured from Rome by the metropolitan of the diocese.

For nearly two decades Catholic workers in the downtown districts have been urging the necessity of Sunday services for the night workers, composing a vast army of newspaper men, theatrical, hotel and restaurant folk whose labors cease between the hours of 1 and 4 a. m. As the first services are not usually held before 6 o'clock in the morning, this necessitates the worker losing a few hours' extra sleep or taking only a few hours' rest before attending the last service held in his church. The first service of the kind was held by the Paulist Fathers in St. Mary's church Christmas morning, 1903, and it was attended by such a large congregation that it was decided to make it a permanent Sunday service as soon as the necessary authority could be received from Rome. A meeting of night workers in the newspaper offices, hotels and theaters will be held next week by the Paulist Fathers for the purpose of arranging the hour for mass that will be the most convenient to the majority of them.

DR. OUCHTERLONY ILL.

Dr. John A. Ouchterlony, one of Louisville's leading physicians is seriously ill at his home in this city. He spent several months in New London, Conn., in hope of regaining his health, but returned ten days ago apparently worse than when he went away. At this writing the attending physicians say his condition is very grave.

C. K. of A.—Catholics who believe more in salaried insurance agents than they do in their Catholic brethren will soon discover what it costs to be insured by people who make of it a business for profit and speculation. A Beneficent Certificate with the Catholic Knights of America is fully one-fourth cheaper and as reliable as a policy in any "old line" company. Write to President Felix Gauchin, New Orleans, La., or to Secretary Anthony Maize, Mermod-Jacques Building, St. Louis, Mo.

NO MOTHER NOW.

In Memory of Mrs. Bridget Finegan
Deep sorrow to us is given,
Gloom encircles our brow;
Love's dearest tie is riven,
For we have no mother now.

Faded are all joy's roses,
No sunshine our days endow;
The grave our heart encloses,
For we have no mother now.

The Rev. Father Michael O'Flanagan, of County Roscommon, Ireland, will lecture in Providence, R. I., on October 12, under the auspices of the joint divisions of the order in that city. The proceeds will be devoted to the Irish industrial movement.

At the last quarterly meeting of the various divisions in Indianapolis resolutions were adopted endorsing the movement for the revival of the Gaelic language and literature among the Irish of all nations. The resolutions also pledged the order in the support of the proposed welcome to Dr. Douglas Hyde, the principal factor in the Gaelic revival movement, and who has succeeded in obtaining the teaching of Gaelic in 3,100 Irish schools.

RACE QUESTION.

In a sermon last Sunday Archbishop Glennon declared that religious training was the chief hope for the solution of the negro problem, and that the black man's future would be more secure when he ceased to be the property of political bosses.

"Once the property of slave owners, the black man is now the property of politicians," he declared, "and it needs the conquest of religion to make him control his emotions, to devote himself to industry rather than to politics, and to emancipate him from political slavery."

"The colored man is ruled largely by his emotions. What he needs is training of the heart, control of the emotions, the complete conquest in him by the moral law. It is only through a thorough religious training that this can be done. Only through the dominant influence of religion may a decent mode of life be created for him."

COUNTY BOARD MEETS.

The County Board, A. O. H., held a special meeting Thursday night to consider the advisability of securing one production in this city of the famous Oberammergau pictures. Messrs. John Mulloy, William Connolly, Patrick Welsh, Thomas Quinn and Joseph Dougherty were named as a committee to visit New Albany and see the pictures. If these gentlemen are satisfied they have full power to act in the matter.

EUREKA FLOUR.

The Kentucky Irish American desires to call the attention of its readers this week to the advertisement of Edinger & Co., manufacturers of the celebrated Eureka flour and receivers and shippers of grain, hay and flour. This company is essentially a home industry and employs home workmen at good wages. There is no better flour in the market. Edinger & Co. deserve the liberal patronage of Louisville citizens.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Misses Alice and Georgia Blumer, of Seymour, Ind., spent a few days this week as the guests of Miss Nora Wales, 2608 First street.

William Wilson, after a stay of three years abroad, has returned to this city. He was entertained by a party of old friends at his home, 208 Shipp avenue, on Wednesday evening.

UNITY AT WORK.

Unity Council, Y. M. I., of New Albany, at its meeting Tuesday evening appointed a committee to arrange for the exemplification of the new ritual. It is hoped to initiate a large class at an early date.

NONPAREL'S FIRST DANCE.

The Nonparel Club will give its first dance of the season at Schreiber's Hall next Wednesday night. Many of the most popular young men in the city belong to this club and their dances are always well attended.

No Stiff Fingers
No Treacherous Memory WITH THE CECILIAN.
No Lack of Repertoire

It is ever ready to do your bidding, and "discourse sweet music".
Years of experimenting have finally produced in the Cecilian, an instrument which is correctly called

"THE PERFECT PIANO PLAYER"

The "CECILIAN" does the mechanical work for you; it is a statement of fact when we say that the musical results achieved, that is, expression, tone, quality, are hardly to be distinguished from the playing of a really great pianist and musician. Tone is graduated instantly from pianissimo to fortissimo, technical difficulties are as easily overcome as a simple scale by the amateur, and effects are limited only by the intelligence of the performer.

SAW SIGHTS.

Letter Carrier Louis Borntraeger Visited Northern Cities.

Louis Borntraeger, the well known letter carrier, and family have returned from a delightful trip to Chicago, Indianapolis and Milwaukee. During his travels he met Supreme President Fogarty of the Young Men's Institute at Indianapolis, who had several good words to say for the Kentucky jurisdiction. Mr.

Borntraeger also met Thomas Burkholder, formerly a member of Mackin Council, but now a resident of Chicago.
While he was greatly impressed with all he saw on his fifteen days' furlough, he is still of the opinion that Louisville is good enough for him. Both Mr. and Mrs. Borntraeger are greatly improved in health as the result of their outing.

WORTHY MAN.

Dennis O'Hern, Democratic candidate families in the city, being the proud parent of twelve children, four sons and eight daughters, all well and healthy.

He is superintendent of the car department of the Kentucky Refining Company and is well thought of by his employers. If elected in November Mr.
O'Hern will make a model city official.

and always takes an active interest in Y.
M. I. affairs.

dealer, has removed to new and more commodious quarters at 151 and 153 West department, while the wholesale and retail stores are in front. Mr. Sowders

STYLE AND STABILITY ARE DEMANDED IN YOUR FURNITURE.

But you don't have to hunt up a swell store to get the style and quality. The factories where all good furniture is made aren't located on fine streets, and there is where the best of them buy it.
That's where I buy mine; and I pay no more than others, often less on account of quantity purchased. The difference is, I keep my stock in a modest neighborhood where rents are cheap and other economies possible, and there is where I interest you. I give you in prices the benefit of these economies.
Just investigate and see. Come in and let me show you the most stylish stock in Louisville. I don't ask you to buy.
I want you to compare my prices and goods with others. I sell the products of the best manufacturers of Furniture, Carpets, Cook Stoves and Ranges cheaper than the same goods can be had elsewhere in Louisville.
